Wynona has grown up yearning for something better but the good life remains nothing more than a dream - until she takes up with Ricky. Together they plan and execute the robbery of a lifetime. As they flee south in triumph with the proceeds, little do they realise that the local Mafia boss had his eye on the very same jackpot and he was not a forgiving man. When the police close the case, it's left to Malec, the professionally sceptical private detective, to recover the money for the insurance company. He has reason to believe that Wynona is still at large and proceeds to investigate her former contacts. Meanwhile the Mafia are also using their considerable resources to find Wynona. As the trail leads to New Orleans, can Malec find his target before death intervenes?
