Milk Run: A Frightening Tale of Good vs. Evil Kalbie James

Everything happens for a reason, and God always has a plan.

Sometimes, he brings two people together in what seems like a random encounter that leads to lifelong love. In those moments, when all it takes is the briefest contact to forever join a perfectly mismatched pair, like affluent Philomena Winstead and poor Billy Mercer, a dairy farmer, it is easy to remember that God does everything for the greater good.

In Milk Run, sin and wickedness are spreading their poison through Rural Retreat, Virginia, and the worst is yet to come. When Philly and Billy encounter the darkness, a true, unspeakable evil coming from the least expected place, they must choose their allies carefully. But when the shadow begins to encroach on their lives and endanger their family, they might find that they've made the wrong choice.

A suspenseful tale of romance, spiritual temptation, and the power of Christ, Milk Run reminds us that when our circumstances seem overwhelming, the only way out of the dark is to follow the light.
