The Nana Stories: Insightful, humorous and reflective stories from a modern-day Grandmother Janet Greer

When there are young children in your life, there is always a story to tell. Drawing inspiration from grandchildren she fondly refers to as The Grands, author Janet Greer is excited to introduce her latest work. The Nana Stories is full of outrageously funny events, some with nail-biter endings and other real-life stories that will tug at the heartstrings of every grandparent. A native of beautiful East Tennessee, Janet continues to reside there with her husband and large extended family. The author also enjoys writing for young children. When You Hear a Siren marked her debut into the world of children's literature.
