Headed West It's 2007 and Victoria Jones has just lost her husband to a steroid induced heart-attack and her home all at the same time. The scandal that follows rocks the whole world and she is thrust into the spot light by the media as the gold-digging wife. Left penniless except for her car and the clothes on her back she decides to escape the gossip and take a vacation to Big Sky Country where nobody knows her name. Her trip is supposed to be a peaceful hiatus in the Mountains of Avery, Montana in a quaint little bed and breakfast for two weeks to clear her head, but when an unexpected blizzard strikes she's forced to wait out the storm with the only person she knows in the small town. Little does she know she's about to meet the man who will turn her world upside down! Head Over Heels Cord Law came back home three years ago as a broken man, with injuries that ended his career as a soldier. All he wants to do is hide out on his ranch and be left alone. He doesn't feel like he'll ever be a whole man again and he doesn't want to try either. He's had a lot of pain in his 32 years and he's become bitter and callous, until Victoria Jones lands on his doorstep during a late in the season snowstorm. Immediately he is drawn to her and his life is transformed by her presence. The minute she enters his home the dark clouds began to move away and he finds his joy again. Will he allow himself to be happy in his new inter-racial relationship, or will his jealous ex-Fiance ruin his happily ever after? What Cord and Victoria each need is to win again in love and life. Join them on their journey through uncharted waters to love, redemption and restoration."
