Do Journeys End? (Frontier Faith Series) (Volume 3) Dr. R. T. Hirner

Whether he was a man or a manifestation wasn't clear. The mysterious stranger seemed to be present at every crisis rendering aid, saving a life and then disappearing without a word. No one knew where he came from or, more importantly, why he was in the small river town. When the men of the Standard cross paths with Caleb he issues an equally mysterious invitation; the effect being enough to draw them to the distant town of Promise. Caleb's journey brought him to Hannibal where his unusual knack for rescuing strangers made him seem bigger than life. However, the conflict awaiting him in Promise—the conflict into which the Standard men would now ride—was a conflict that could end a man's journey forever. When the Standard men begin to arrive in Promise, they encounter that which Caleb had known but what they had to discover for themselves.
