Olivia and her friends Grace, Will and Jack are now in Year 6 at Coolongawong Public School and continue to enjoy the wonders of Mr Mac's magic classroom. They visit many new places together, including Tutankhamen's tomb and Cleopatra in Ancient Egypt, an underground city in Turkey, Louisbourg and Paris. They find themselves performing in Barnum and Bailey's circus and discover what school was like back in the nineteenth century. They travel to Japan, Africa, Panama and many other places as they witness history in the making. They are present in Darwin during Cyclone Tracy and meet Harry Houdini, Mozart, Boudicca and Breaker Morant. Matt, Nicky, Ben and Kris also return for an adventure back to New York during the terrorist attacks on the twin towers. Mr Mac's love of teaching history provides some of these destinations but others are the choices of the children. In this fourth book in the series, they continue meeting some of history's most famous heroes, and are present at some of history's most crucial times.
