Who are the mysterious women of the Bible who left us such important life messages? What was their wisdom and where did it come from? What are the messages for us today that were given to Biblical prophets and the men who spoke with God?

In this book, the contemporary American artist Janet Shafner, interprets events in the dramatic lives of our biblical foremothers and forefathers in a series of powerful oil paintings. She writes: "Everything that touches us deeply today has a parallel occurrence in the Bible - family jealousy, sexual obsession, enduring love and sacrifice, murder, rape, incest, man's inhumanity to his fellow, even ethnic cleansing - it is all there".

For all readers seeking to explore the deeper levels of meaning in these ancient texts through the unique medium of painting and the textual explication of Midrash, this book is a fascinating journey. We discover the real reason that Lot's wife turned into a pillar of salt, the story of the unnamed sister/brides of Cain and Abel, a fatal error of judgement that led to centuries of evil for the Jewish people, the convert whose daring made possible the royal family of Israel and the future Messiah. These and many other fascinating mysteries are revealed in a series of vivid, multi-paneled, shaped canvases.

The 36 paintings illustrated in this book will be exhibited at The Lyman Allyn Art Museum in New London, Connecticut from January 7 to June 8, 2003.
