Harry's Triumphant 1900 American Tour. Bob Labbanca with Brian Siplo. In 1899, Harry Vardon dominated competitive golf in the UK, winning nearly 75 percent of the matches and tournaments in which he participated, which led to a lucrative endorsement contract with the American-based Spaulding Company and a chance to display his skills against all the top players of the era. Vardon's tour is recreated in this portrait of golf in 1900 America, which includes many fascinating period photographs of both players and venues.
