Wall Art

An important aspect of interior and exterior design is attention to the space itself. The designers in Wall Art successfully respond to spatial stimuli and channel their excitement into wall design. Interior wall design can transmit our tastes, interests, and character to the outside visitor. Walls - no matter what style -- can become all-encompassing, exciting environments that set the mood for interactions within a given room. This book features the finest work of 43 talented design teams worldwide. The cutting-edge designs include various wall-paintings, wallpapers, wall stickers, wall coverings and wall decorations. This book is an invaluable resource of inspiration for professional designers and artists as well as design enthusiasts.
