Tom is the youngest in a family of wild turkey chicks, but he has big ambitions. He never stops thinking about what he really wants to do — to fluff his feathers and fan out his tail and strut like the magnificent Big Gobbler. But Little Tom is, well, little, and when he tries to strut, he just topples over. What Tom doesn't know is that time and nature are on his side, and that all he really needs to do is be patient and concentrate on learning all the things a wild turkey needs to know.
