Newsweek remembers legendary the Arnold Palmer, one of the greatest professional golfers of all time. This fully illustrated, 100-page special edition celebrates the man who won seven majors, played in The Masters 50 times total, co-founded the Golf Channel, was awarded the Congressional Gold Medal in 2012 and the creator of his namesake drink, the Arnold Palmer-a mix of lemonade and iced-tea. Palmer has widely been credited with bringing in America's blue-collar worker into a previously elitist sport of professional golf. His influence in golf has spanned generations and continues to do so.
