Scanning For Signal serves as an outstretched hand to help you find your connection. A book of introspective writings and prose that explore the feelings and emotions most relevant, and often most troublesome, to an awakening generation of young people and millennials alike. Explore loneliness, God, happiness, spirituality, and so much more.

Its four diverse authors each bring their own unique perspective to the project and have thus created a layered, multidimensional text that will resonate with seekers across the globe. It is their hope that Scanning For Signal strengthens the connection between those who support and long for a healthy, honest, and loving discourse with themselves and their peers.

Join them not only through the pages but also in their mission to inject a higher vibration into the global conversation.
