Three & Out (Queen of the League) (Volume 3) Laura Chapman

After rushing to the altar and moving across the country, Harper Duquaine (or is it MacLaughlin, now?) is in uncharted territory. What once seemed like a promising opportunity to advance her husband's career while giving her some much-needed independence and adventure has proven to be a bust. By the time fall rolls around again, she's back in a boring job by day and overstocking her inventory of crocheted scarves by night. Not even the prospect of a new football season holds much excitement. At least that's what she thought. Harper suddenly finds herself the manager of not one but two fantasy football teams—each with its own set of drama. Between the added pressure of her new marriage, an unexpected career prospect, and the hiccups created by people from her past and present worlds, Harper quickly finds herself going from bored to overwhelmed. Can she hold up under the pressure, or will Harper learn the hard way that the turf isn't always greener on the other field?
