Deception Maureen Chambers

Penny Faux is on a train to London after the murder of her mentor Megan Smith, meeting her lover, Ray, a money launderer for a South London Gang. She is befriended on the train by Sean, a steward, who is a volunteer at 'The People's Cafe,' Euston, feeding the homeless. But Penny isn't the naive young woman she appears as she quietly works 'cooking the books' for the London gang. And when she overhears Henri detail a plan to rob the Glasgow to Euston Royal Mail Train, Penny places herself in a situations that will test her powers of deception to the limit, as she desperately tries to glean information of the steal. Realising she needs help she searches out Sean and his band of homeless, damaged men, and is dumbstruck when Sean reveals a secret that makes her believe they have a chance of robbing the train and getting away with it. But time is running out and her two separate lives begin to collide with malevolent consequences.
