A Grave Error Mr. R A Howell Jr.

The tranquil beauty of the small Caribbean island, El Niño, was shattered by two murders so brutal they cause the only witness to have a nervous breakdown. The local police believe the murders were drug related and feel hopelessly ill-equipped to find and punish the killers, while also protecting the lone witness from some powerful drug cartel. Who can bring the killers to justice? One couple feels they must try for their own safety and for the safety of their families and friends. However, in desperate circumstances, police and talented amateurs alike are prone to make grave errors.
