You'll cherish this poignant account of the struggles faced by a group of horses in need of care and nurturing and a big-hearted man faced with numerous life-threatening health issues of his own. After embarking on his horse rescue mission, this first-time author finds his life taking some amazing twists and turns as he fights one medical crisis after another. You will laugh at the antics, shed a tear at the pain, and be amazed to see how love, faith, and horses were instrumental to recovery and finding the ultimate path to happiness.

These magnificent horses will jump from the pages of the book straight into your heart, amid pangs of hunger, mistrust and fear, as the story of their rescue is told.
