Enjoying her secret lover for the past two years, Amber is now thrown into an emotional whirlwind while being forced to make some major life decisions. Amber, still a child in her father's eyes, is forced to be engaged to a man who has been selected by her parents. Phillip is chosen based off his aspirations of becoming the next pastor of Sheep Kingdom Ministries. Amber's father plays 'God' while Phillip blindly follows the course that is set out for the both of them without question. But where does all of this leave Shayna? She's the one who loves and adore Amber unconditionally. The only one who cares for her without judgement. The woman with whom she is free to be herself. The only person with whom she has such liberty! What will Amber do? Will she allow 'Father god' to force her into a loveless marriage or will she finally face her truth, grow up, and go against her father's wishes for a change? To be or Not to Be?
