Having spent forty years working in show business, the author thought she'd seen it all. But even when you have earned fifty shades of gray hair, life still can still throw some tremendous surprises into your path.

One of those surprises was that after the author's husband passed away, he began communicating psychically with her, opening her mind to the spiritual world. But he had many secrets to reveal about their life, love and the afterlife. The story he told is so strange and unusual that only a seasoned citizen could have the experience and wisdom to understand it and believe it. But anyone who is young at heart will respond to this moving and tragic love story.

This is a baby boomer memoir by author Marcy Casterline O'Rourke, Barnard College graduate, Eileen Ford model, actress, and married for thirty-five years to the late actor, Tom O'Rourke, who appeared regularly on "Law and Order", in "Maid in Manhattan", on the "Guiding Light", wrote "Desert Heat" with Jean Claude Van Damme, and a 101st Airborne paratrooper.
