Excerpt from An Address: Delivered Before the Union League of Philadelphia on Saturday Evening, January 20, 1906

On. Edwin S. Stuart, President, called the meeting to order. Rear Admiral Joseph Adams Smith, U. S. N Retired; the Secretary, Mr. William H. Lambert; and Mr. Abraham Barker also occupied the platform. Colonel R. Dale benson was recognized by the Chair and said: Mr. President, and Gentlemen of The Union League: A pleasant and agreeable duty comes to me this evening, though it is to be regretted that this is through the absence from the city of Mr. E. Burgess Warren, President of the Art Association of The Union League of Philadelphia, at whose request I am acting as a representative of its membership.
