CALZADA EVACUATES POPAYAN.--G£N. VALDEZ'S CONDUCT. Bolivar, now left Bogotit, to join the armies that had been collected in different parts of Venezuela; and turned all his attention on the province of Caracas, where Morillo had concentrated his forces. Previous to his departure, he left Gen. Francisco de Paula Santander, who had been appointed by Congress Vice-President of Colombia; in command of Santa Fe. "Intelligence was received at head-quarters, that a party of the royalists, who had advanced from Popayan, were pressing men into their service, and plundering the upper part of the province of Ney va. Santander, therefore, detached a division of the army against them, under the command of Generals Valdez and Mirez; with orders to penetrate, if possible, into the valley of Caiica, and to advance towards Quito. This division consisted of four regiments of infantry; the Albions, commanded by Col. M'Intosh, in which corps were collected all the...
