Paavai: There's Blood on the Mirror Christina Nicole Meadows

Seventeen year old Paavai Chopra was the product of a one hit wonder. Her childhood was constantly uprooted from place to place, by her abusive father who was a struggling unemployed actor. With her dad's constant failure, Paavai's consistent ability to gain friends, along with her natural beauty, Paavai's father started to live vicariously through her. Paavai began experimenting with the thought of suicide, moving dangerously close to success... until she met Tyson. Tyson was her stability, her foundation, and in a moment of spontaneity he became her husband. But Tyson was African American. Though she fell hard for Tyson, she had to give him up to move again, this time back to India. Ten years later, through hard work, Paavai is now a Bollywood superstar. Queen of the East. Her violent father is now her manager. Her career is at the top, she's India's favorite woman... but what happens when her long lost husband re-enters her life?
