Perfect Impact George Hibbard

This is the Second Edition of the same title, "Perfect Impact....," written to teach everything you must know about how to make a conventional golf swing, to make perfect impact, and to enable a golfer to reach the highest levels of the game, including self and course management.

This edition is in hardcover, has about 200 pages and 51 detailed photos, contains improvements and additional material over the First Edition (ISBN 0967395100) which is priced retail for $10 more than that First Edition.

Testimonials and reviews by readers of these books contain comments from golfers like yourself that praise the book for revealing necessary and liberating details that they have never found anywhere else in their golf libraries.

Since publication, an expanded and enlarged Third Edition has been issued in paperback for a retail price $10 less than the price of the Second Edition. It also contains materials and deeper explanations of some key pointers not contained in either of the first two editions.

The ISBN for that Third Edition is 0967395135, so please be sure to select the edition you prefer.
