The People of the Abyss Jack London

Jack London was an extremely popular American writer and social activist. Many of London's stories were set during the Klondike Gold Rush in the late nineteenth century. London's most famous novels include The Call of the Wild, White Fang, and The Sea-Wolf. The People of the Abyss is a first-hand account of life in the East End of London. Jack London wrote the book after living there for three months.
