Quilting Memories Jefferson County Historical Society

This is a catalog for Quilting Memories, an exhibition of historic quilts at the Jefferson Museum of Art & History in Port Townsend, Washington from September 2016 to February 2017. The quilts exhibited are from the collection of the historical society; most are loans from members of the community. All represent skill and artistry far beyond practical requirements. As cherished heirlooms, they illustrate hard-working women's deep desire for beauty and creative expression.
