According to an old South American proverb, "good broth will resurrect the dead." While that's undoubtedly an exaggeration, it speaks to the value placed on this wholesome food, going back through the annals of time. First and foremost, homemade bone broth is excellent for speeding healing and recuperation from illness. You've undoubtedly heard the old adage that chicken soup will help cure a cold, and there's scientific support for such a statement. This book contains 50 budget-friendly and easy-to-follow recipes on how to make bone broths at home. Basic broth recipes that utilize beef, chicken, fish, and pork bones can be used as substitutes for unhealthy beverages, or as flavor base for other dishes. Also included in this book are recipes for curries, sauces, soups and stews which you can easily add to your daily meal plans. Best of all, these recipes taste great, and can be enjoyed by just about anyone regardless of age and health.
