Naomi Toombs discovers that her Amish husband has seven secret wives in the land of the English after he kicks their daughter to death in Naomi's belly and causes the death of his five year old son. He then disappears in the morning rain. Suddenly alone and unable to make a living for herself on their twenty acre farm, Naomi relocates in the land of the English and starts herself a business. Six years or so later, fate lets her discover her missing husband and his seven secret wives. Naomi wants justice for her two dead children and her husband arrested and charged with murder and polygamy. Invited to attend a stranger's wedding with a friend, she accidentally stumbles in on her husband, the groom, about to marry his eighth wife. All hell breaks loose. Behind the scenes, Osceola Black Lightning, a death angel, delivers justice, curses, and plagues on those attending the wedding from hell. Abraham Toombs, Naomi's Amish father-in-law, suddenly finds himself interacting with a secret, family psychic and talking to the dead. Doing so, could get him shunned.
